

Earthquake Cake Day!

Year 8 completed stunning homework this week. Their task was to bring in a cake or something edible to represent a part of our topic on tectonics. Some truly amazing creations were brought into school, including a working volcano! Here were the results of their superb effort! Ms Birch 😊

