

Infant News

Infant Choir rehearsals

Infants rehearsing for their opening slot of the Summer Concert.

The Infants Team and Mrs Izod are so incredibly proud of the children - thank-you to Miss Tait and Year 3 for the fabulous signs they held up in the evening too!

Archaeological dig looking for fossils

Busy in Outdoor learning

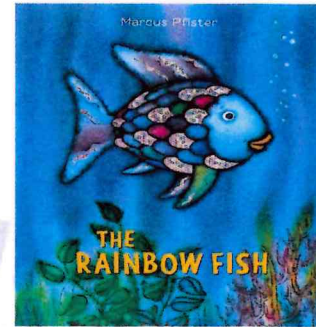

Infant News

Drama in the Infants with Miss Jones

Miss Jones has been busy with the Infants recording story-telling performances - watch this space...!

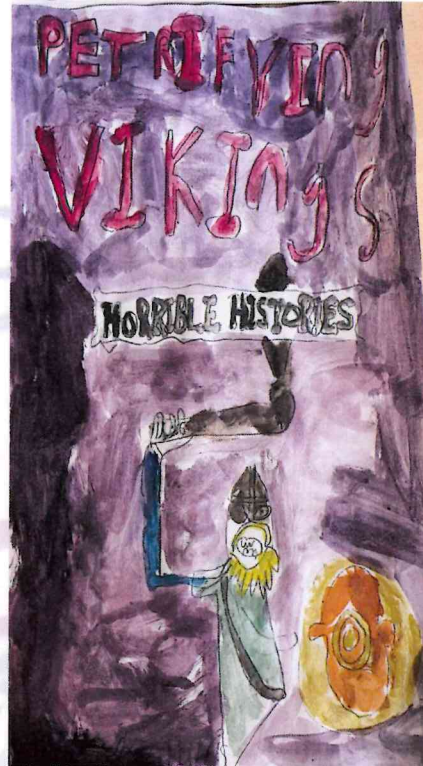

We're going on a T-Rex hunt.....

Junior News

Horrible History

J3 enjoyed creating their own Horrible History book covers. That wraps up a fantastic unit of work on the Vikings. Whatever is next?

Wesak lanterns

Year 4 have been studying Buddhism this term and looked at the festivals which they celebrate. The pupils have made and decorated Wesak lanterns. Wesak is the most important of the Buddhist festivals.

Junior News

Our Years 5 and 6 practising for their Summer Concert performances!

We are so proud of all our children for their wonderful singing and musical performances this week, as well as their enthusiasm and efforts in our Sports Day today.

The children are looking forward to our end of term trips next week!