Bowbrook House School Code of Conduct for Teaching and Support Staff

This document has been written having considered the latest KCSIE

Overview

Bowbrook House School seeks to provide a safe and supportive environment, which secures the well-being and very best outcomes for students in their care. Our values are set out in our statement of Ethos and Aims.

This Code should clarify what is expected in terms of professional behaviour; it gives clear advice about what constitutes illegal behaviour and what might be considered as misconduct. It also describes safe practice and behaviours that should be avoided.

If a member of staff does not follow this Code of Conduct, then disciplinary procedures may be invoked.

Core Principles

1. The welfare of students is paramount. The physical, social and emotional wellbeing of students is a whole school responsibility and is central to all we do.
2. Staff have a responsibility for their own actions and behaviour and should avoid any conduct which would lead any reasonable person to question their motivation and intentions.
3. Staff should behave and dress appropriately and professionally at all times.
4. Staff should discuss and/or take advice promptly from their line manager or another senior member of staff over any incident, which may give rise to concern.
5. All staff should know the name of their designated person for safeguarding, be familiar with arrangements for safeguarding children and understand their responsibilities to safeguard and protect students, including online.
6. Staff should be aware that breaches of the law, their contract or school policy will be referred to the LADO and may result in criminal or disciplinary action being taken against them.

Safe Working Practices for the Protection of Students and Staff at Bowbrook House School

1. Introduction

This guidance has been produced to help all staff establish the safest possible learning and working environments. The aims are to safeguard young people and reduce the risk of staff being falsely accused of improper or unprofessional conduct.

This means that these guidelines:

- Apply to all adults working in education settings whatever their position, roles, or responsibilities.

2. Duty of Care

Teachers and other staff are accountable for the way in which they exercise authority; manage risk; use resources and protect students from discrimination and avoidable harm.

All staff, whether paid or voluntary, have a duty to keep young people safe and to protect them from physical and emotional harm.

This duty is in part exercised through the development of respectful, caring and professional relationships between staff and students and behaviour by staff that demonstrates integrity, maturity and good judgement.

There are legitimate high expectations about the nature of the professional involvement of staff in the lives of students. When individuals accept a role that involves working with children and young people, they need to understand and acknowledge the responsibilities and trust inherent in that role.

Employers have a duty of care towards their employees, which requires them to provide a safe working environment for staff and guidance about safe working practices.

This means that staff should:

- understand the responsibilities, which are part of their employment or role, and be aware that sanctions will be applied if these provisions are breached
- always act, and be seen to act, in the child's best interests
- avoid any conduct which would lead any reasonable person to question their motivation and intentions
- take responsibility for their own actions and behaviour

This means that Bowbrook House School should:

- ensure that safeguarding procedures are in place and reviewed
- ensure that systems are in place for concerns to be raised
- ensure that staff are not placed in situations which render them particularly vulnerable.

3. Exercise of Professional Judgement

This guidance cannot provide a complete checklist of what is, or is not, appropriate behaviour for staff. It does highlight however, behaviour that is illegal, inappropriate or inadvisable. There will be occasions and circumstances in which staff have to make decisions or take action in the best interests of the students that could contravene this guidance or where no guidance exists. Individuals are expected to make judgements about their behaviour in order to secure the best interests and welfare of the children in their charge and in so doing, will be judged to be acting reasonably.

This means that where no specific guidance exists staff should:

- discuss the circumstances that informed their action, or their proposed action, with a senior colleague. This will help to ensure that the safest practices are employed and reduce the risk of actions being misinterpreted
- always discuss any misunderstanding, accidents or threats with a senior leader
- always record discussions and actions taken with their justifications

4. Power and Positions of Trust

All adults working with students in education settings are in positions of trust in relation to the young people in their care.

A relationship between a member of staff and a student cannot be a relationship between equals. There is potential for exploitation and harm of vulnerable young people; staff have a responsibility to ensure that an unequal balance of power is not used for personal advantage or gratification.

Staff should always maintain appropriate professionalism and wherever possible, they should avoid behaviour which might be misinterpreted by others, and report and record any incident with this potential.

Where a person aged 18 or over is in a position of trust with a child under 18 (or still at school) it is an offence for that person to engage in sexual activity with or in the presence of that child, or to cause or incite that child to engage in or watch sexual activity. Where a person aged 18 or over is in a position of trust established with a person who has only recently left the school, any attempt to engage in sexual activity with that person will be a cause for concern and will be treated as a breach of trust established in that prior relationship.

This means that staff should not:

- use their position to gain access to information for their own advantage and/or a students' or family's detriment
- use their power to intimidate, threaten, coerce or undermine students
- use their status and standing to form or promote a relationship with a student, which is of a sexual nature.

5. Confidentiality

Members of staff may have access to confidential information about students in order to undertake their everyday responsibilities. In some circumstances staff may be given additional highly sensitive or private information. They should never use confidential or personal information about a student or their family for their own, or others' advantage. Information must never be used to intimidate, humiliate, or embarrass the student.

Confidential information about students should never be used casually in conversation or shared with any person other than on a need-to-know basis. In circumstances where the student's identity does not need to be disclosed the information should be used anonymously.

There are some circumstances in which a member of staff may be expected to share information about a student, for example when abuse is alleged or suspected. In such cases, individuals have a duty to pass information on without delay, but only to those with designated child protection responsibilities.

If a member of staff is in any doubt about whether to share information or keep it confidential, he or she should seek guidance from a senior member of staff. Any media or legal enquiries should be passed to senior leadership.

Adults need to be aware that although it is important to listen to and support students, they must not promise confidentiality or request students to do the same under any circumstances.

This means that staff:

- are expected to treat information they receive about students in a discreet and confidential manner
- if in any doubt about sharing information they hold or which has been requested of them should seek advice from a senior member of staff
- need to be cautious when passing information to others about a student
- need to know to whom any concerns or allegations should be reported
- Additionally concerns and allegations about adults should be treated as confidential and passed to a senior leader without delay

6. Propriety and Behaviour

All staff have a responsibility to maintain public confidence in their ability to safeguard the welfare and best interests of students. They should adopt high standards of personal conduct in order to maintain the confidence and respect of their peers, students and the public in general.

An individual's behaviour, either in or out of the workplace, should not compromise her/his position within the work setting so it is important to exercise due care and attention when outside of the school environment.

Membership of organisation(s) whose goals are in conflict with the values and equality policies of the school is not acceptable.

This means that staff should:

- On school trips or on other occasions when pupils are under their supervision, staff must ensure that there are sufficient members of staff available and able to respond appropriately to any emergency that might occur.

This means that staff should not:

- behave in a manner which would lead any reasonable person to question their suitability to work with students or act as a role model.
- make inappropriate remarks to a student (including email, text messages, phone or letter etc.)
- discuss their own sexual relationships with or in the presence of students
- discuss a student's sexual relationships in inappropriate settings or contexts
- make (or encourage others to make) unprofessional personal comments in any form of communication (e-mail, conversations or social networking comments)

7. Dress and Appearance

Staff should consider the manner of dress and appearance appropriate to their professional role. We require students to be smart in their uniform. Smart and professional appearance is expected at all times for staff. Staff should ensure they are dressed decently, safely and appropriately for the tasks they undertake.

Those who dress or appear in a manner which could be considered as inappropriate could render themselves vulnerable to criticism or allegation. Appropriate personal presentation is expected of staff.

Staff must:

- Be aware that their behaviour in their personal lives may impact upon their work with students.

This means that staff should ensure their appearance and clothing:

- promotes a positive and professional image
- is appropriate to their role

8. Gifts

Staff should be aware of the school's policy regarding arrangements for the declaration of gifts received and given. Staff need to take care that they do not accept any gift that might be construed as a bribe by others, or lead the giver to expect preferential treatment.

There are occasions when students or parents wish to pass small tokens of appreciation to staff, for example at Christmas or as a thank-you, and this is acceptable. However, it is unacceptable to receive gifts on a regular basis or of any significant value.

Any member of staff concerned about whether they or their colleagues may be at risk of giving or receiving a bribe (financial or otherwise) should contact the headmaster. Any member of staff receiving gifts or entertainment valued at more than £20 must disclose this to the headmaster.

Members of staff may not give personal gifts to students. It is acceptable for staff to offer prizes of small value in certain tasks or competitions.

This means that staff should:

- ensure that gifts received or given in situations which may be misconstrued are declared
- ensure that gifts of significant value are declared
- generally, only give gifts to an individual young person as part of an agreed reward system
- Where giving gifts other than as above, ensure that this is done with the full knowledge of their Line Manager.

9. Infatuations

Staff need to be aware that it is not uncommon for students to be strongly attracted to a member of staff and/or develop an infatuation. Staff should be aware that such circumstances always carry a high risk of words or actions being misinterpreted and for allegations to be made against staff.

A member of staff who becomes aware that a student may be infatuated with him/herself or a colleague should discuss this at the earliest opportunity with a senior colleague so that appropriate action can be taken. In this way, steps can be taken to avoid hurt and distress for all concerned.

This means that staff should:

- Report to senior colleagues any indications (verbal, written or physical) that suggest a student may be infatuated with a member of staff.
- Be mindful if they are alone in a room with a student. Leave the door open if you have to.

10. Personal Living Space

No student should be in or invited into, the home of an adult who works with them, unless the reason for this has been firmly established (e.g., babysitting) and agreed with parents and senior leaders

This means that staff should:

- be vigilant in maintaining their privacy and mindful of the need to avoid placing themselves in vulnerable situations
- be mindful of the need to maintain professional boundaries.

11. Communication with students (including the use of technology)

Communication between students and adults, by whatever method, should take place within clear and explicit professional boundaries. This includes the wider use of technology such as mobile phones, text messaging, e-mails, digital cameras, videos, web-cams, websites, social networking sites, online gaming and blogs. Adults should not share any personal information with a student.

They should not request, or respond to, any personal information from the student, other than that which might be appropriate as part of their professional role. Adults should ensure that all communications are transparent and open to scrutiny.

Adults should also be circumspect in their communications with students so as to avoid any possible misinterpretation of their motives or any behaviour which could be construed as grooming. They should not give their personal contact details to students including e-mail, home or mobile telephone numbers, unless the need to do so is agreed with senior leadership and parents. E-mail or text communications between an adult and a student outside agreed protocols may lead to disciplinary and/or criminal investigations. This also includes communications through internet-based web sites, such as social networking, instant messaging or gaming.

Communication with ex-students who are over 18 is left to staff discretion. Please be conscious of the fact that ex-students may be in contact with current students.

Be aware that actions that bring the school into disrepute could lead to disciplinary procedures being taken.

This means that staff should:

- only give their personal contact details to students, including their mobile telephone number, for professional reasons and with the knowledge of their line manager.
- communicate with students in an appropriate and professional manner, making sure that parents have given permission for this form of communication to be used
- only make contact with students for professional reasons
- not use internet or web-based communication channels to send personal messages to a student other than when using the school's communication functions.
- not to store images of students on personal cameras, devices or home computers.*
- not make images of students available on the internet, other than through the school network/website, without permission from parents and senior teachers.
- Be cautious in their contact with ex-pupils, as there is still a professional relationship and there may be contact with current pupils.

*where a school camera is available, it is appropriate to use this for photographs within school.

Staff may use their phone to take photos of students, for example, on school trips, events or visits. These must not be stored on phones for any longer than necessary and should be transferred without undue delay to the schools shared area. Staff must never take photos of students in circumstances which may be questionable. There is a separate policy for the photography in the EYFS – please refer to this when working in and with EYFS.

12. Social Contact

Staff should not establish or seek to establish social contact with students for the purpose of securing a friendship or to pursue or strengthen a relationship.

Even if a young person seeks to establish social contact, or if this occurs coincidentally, the member of staff should exercise their professional judgement in making a response but should always discuss this with a senior leader. Staff must be aware that social contact, in certain situations, could be misconstrued as grooming. Staff should not give their personal details such as their home or e-mail address; social network sites, gamer tags or web pages to students unless the need to do so is agreed with senior leadership. If students do become aware of your gamer tag you must change it.

This means that staff should:

- always approve any planned social contact with senior colleagues, for example when it is part of a reward scheme or pastoral care programme.
- have no secret social contact with students and should consider the appropriateness of the social contact according to their role and nature of their work.
- advise senior leadership of any regular social contact they have with a student or parent which may give rise to concern.
- report and record any situation, which they feel, might compromise the school or their own professional standing.

13. Social Networking Sites and Online Gaming

Bowbrook House School staff may use social networking sites for personal use. However, Staff should be aware that they leave themselves open to a charge of professional misconduct if images or other content of a member of staff in a compromising situation are made available on a public profile by anyone or display behaviour or views which do not align with the school's values. Staff are advised to ensure they activate security settings on all social media accounts.

Staff must deny current or recent students access to your full profile (for example, by befriending them on Facebook) so you do not put yourself in a vulnerable position.

If a student does gain access to the profile of a member of staff by fraudulent means (impersonation or hacking) senior leadership should be informed immediately.

Where relationships exist between staff and those who are also parents at the school, or personal friends who are parents at the school, social networking is acceptable but caution must be exercised so that professional standards are maintained and staff do not compromise themselves or the school.

As soon as a member of staff becomes aware that they are in an online game with a student of Bowbrook House School, the member of staff should cease to play against that student and should not enter any games containing that player as part of the group.

Under no circumstances should staff seek out students and/or share their own gamer tags/ID with students, or use school equipment to play online games.

Professional e-contact between staff is facilitated through e-mail. WhatsApp can be used as a means of direct contact between staff, for example, to communicate efficiently on school trips and DofE expeditions. Staff should never use it as a social sharing site specifically with school colleagues, or use it to share personal information or discuss individual students outside of the intention to ensure their wellbeing. It is to be noted that, in the event of a Subject Access Request (SAR) staff may be asked to provide all communication, including that on WhatsApp, if it mentions or refers to the student/s, parent/s or staff who is/are the subject of the SAR. There are many high-profile examples of WhatsApp Messages becoming publicly available as a result of this requirement. Staff use should therefore be above reproach and professional at all times.

This means that staff should:

- Secure their profile to ensure that data and images are not freely available. Seek advice if you are unsure how to do this.
- Do not permit current and recent students or parents to have access to your profile.
- Ensure all your passwords are kept strong and secure
- Ensure that public activity on social media sites does not conflict with the school's values and your professional standing
- Be aware that images of others should be protected and be treated as carefully as you would your own

14. Physical Contact

There are occasions when it is entirely appropriate and proper for staff to have physical contact with students, but it is crucial that they only do so in ways appropriate to their professional role. A 'no touch' approach is impractical for most staff and may in some circumstances be inappropriate. When physical contact is made with students this should be in response to their needs at the time, of limited duration and appropriate.

In the EYFS and early prep age groups where children may be particularly tactile and require physical reassurance, staff should use their professional judgement about how they respond to an individual child's needs and actions.

Staff should use their professional judgement at all times about the appropriateness of any physical contact.

Physical contact should never be secretive, or for the gratification of the adult, or represent a misuse of authority. If a member of staff believes that an action could be misinterpreted, the incident and circumstances should be made clear to senior staff.

Physical contact, which occurs regularly with an individual student, is likely to raise questions unless the justification for this is part of a formally agreed plan (for example in relation to students with SEN or physical disabilities). Any such contact should be the subject of an agreed and open school policy and subject to review.

This means that staff should:

- be aware that even well-intentioned physical contact may be misconstrued by the student, an observer or by anyone to whom this action is described

- never touch a student in a way which may be considered indecent
- always be prepared to explain actions and accept that all physical contact be open to scrutiny

This means that Bowbrook House School should:

- ensure they have a system in place for recording serious incidents and the means by which information about incidents and outcomes can be easily accessed by senior leadership.
- Provide staff, on a "need to know" basis, with relevant information about vulnerable students in their care.

Please see the 'Positive Behaviour Policy' section on 'Use of Reasonable Force and Restraint' for further guidance.

15. Physical Education and other activities which require physical contact.

Some staff (for example those who teach PE and games, or who offer music tuition) will, on occasion, have to initiate physical contact with students in order to support a student so they can perform a task safely, to demonstrate the use of a particular piece of equipment/instrument or assist them with an exercise; this should be done with the student's agreement.

Contact under these circumstances should be for the minimum time necessary to complete the activity and take place in an open environment (see section 21, one-to-one situations, below). Staff should remain sensitive to any discomfort expressed verbally or non-verbally by the student.

This means that staff should:

- consider alternatives, where it is anticipated that a student might misinterpret any such contact, perhaps involving another member of staff, or a less vulnerable student in the demonstration.
- always explain to a student the reason why contact is necessary and what form that contact will take unless their safety is at immediate risk

16. Showers and Changing

Young people are entitled to respect and privacy when changing clothes or taking a shower. However, there needs to be an appropriate level of supervision in order to safeguard students, satisfy health and safety considerations and ensure that bullying or harassment does not occur. This supervision should be appropriate to the needs and age of the students concerned and sensitive to the potential for embarrassment. Staff therefore need to be vigilant about their own behaviour, ensure they follow agreed guidelines and be mindful of the needs of the students.

This means that staff should:

- avoid any physical contact when students are in a state of undress
- avoid any visually intrusive behaviour and where there are changing rooms remain in or near the room when groups are changing; ensure sensitive students are offered the opportunity to change privately

This means that staff should not:

- change in the same place as students
- shower with students

17. Students in Distress

There may be occasions when a distressed student needs comfort and reassurance.

This may include age-appropriate physical contact. Staff should remain self-aware at all times in order that their contact is not threatening, intrusive or subject to misinterpretation.

Where a member of staff has a particular concern about the need to provide this type of care and reassurance, they should seek further advice from a senior leader.

This means that staff should:

- consider the way in which they offer comfort to a distressed student
- always tell a colleague when and how they offered comfort to a distressed student
- record situations which may give rise to concern.

18. Behaviour Management

All students have a right to be treated with respect and dignity. Staff should not use any form of degrading treatment to punish a student. The use of humour can help to defuse a situation. The use of sarcasm, demeaning or insensitive comments towards students is not acceptable in any situation.

This means that staff should:

- not use force as a form of punishment
- try to defuse situations before they escalate

This means that staff should:

- always seek to defuse situations
- always use minimum force for the shortest period necessary

19. Care, Control and Physical Intervention

Staff may legitimately intervene to prevent a student from committing a criminal offence, injuring themselves or others, causing damage to property, engaging in behaviour prejudicial to good order and to maintain good order and discipline. Staff should have regard to the health and safety of themselves and others.

Under no circumstances should physical force be used as a form of punishment. The use of unwarranted physical force is likely to constitute a criminal offence.

In all cases where physical intervention is deemed necessary, the incident and subsequent actions should be documented and reported.

This means that staff should:

- always seek to defuse situations
- always use minimum force for the shortest period necessary
- Refer to the Department of Education's 'Use of Reasonable Force' guidance for teachers, available on the staff server in the SAFEGUARDING folder.

20. Sexual Contact with Students

Any sexual behaviour by a member of staff with or towards a student is both inappropriate and illegal. Students are protected by the same laws as adults in relation to non-consensual sexual behaviour.

They are additionally protected by specific legal provisions regardless of whether the child or young person consents or not. This includes the prohibition on adults in a position of trust (see Section 4).

The sexual activity referred to does not just involve physical contact (including penetrative and non-penetrative acts). It may also include non-contact activities, such as causing children to engage in or watch sexual activity or the production of pornographic material.

There are occasions when adults embark on a course of behaviour known as 'grooming' where the sole purpose is to gain the trust of a child and manipulate that relationship so sexual abuse can take place. Staff should be aware that conferring special attention and favour upon a child might be construed as being part of a 'grooming' process, which is an offence.

This means that staff should:

- not pursue sexual relationships with children and young people either in or out of school
- avoid any form of communication with a child or young person which could be interpreted as sexually suggestive or provocative i.e., verbal comments, letters, notes, electronic mail, phone calls, texts, physical contact.

21. One to One Situations

Staff working in one-to-one situations with children and young people are more vulnerable to allegations. Teachers and others should recognise this possibility and plan and conduct such meetings accordingly. Every attempt should be made to ensure the safety and security needs of both staff and students are met.

Pre-arranged meetings with students away from the school premises should not be permitted unless approval is obtained from their parent and the Headmaster or other senior colleague with delegated authority.

This means that staff should:

- avoid meetings with students in remote, secluded areas of the school
- ensure there is visual access and/or an open door in one-to-one situations
- inform other staff of the meeting beforehand, assessing the need to have them present or close by
- avoid use of 'engaged' or equivalent signs wherever possible. Such signs may create an opportunity for secrecy or the interpretation of secrecy
- always report any situation where a child becomes distressed or angry to a senior colleague
- consider the needs and circumstances of the child/children involved.

22. Transporting Children

In certain situations, for example out of school activities, staff or volunteers may agree to transport children.

Wherever possible and practicable it is advisable that transport is undertaken other than in private vehicles, with an additional adult acting as an escort. If there is no alternative other than to transport a pupil in a private vehicle and without an escort then that pupil should sit in the rear of the vehicle. Wherever possible parents should be made aware that a pupil is being transported and permission gained from them. The driver must also have appropriate insurance.

Staff should ensure that their behaviour is safe and that the transport arrangements and the vehicle meet all legal requirements. They should ensure that the vehicle is roadworthy and appropriately insured and that the maximum capacity is not exceeded.

This means that staff should:

- plan and agree arrangements with all parties in advance, responding sensitively and flexibly to disagreements
- ensure that they are alone with a child for the minimum time possible
- be aware that the safety and welfare of the child is their responsibility until this is safely passed over to a parent/carer
- report the nature of the journey, the route and expected time of arrival in accordance with agreed procedures
- ensure that their behaviour and all arrangements ensure vehicle, passenger and driver safety
- take into account any specific needs that the child may have

23. Co-curricular activities

Staff should take particular care when supervising students in the less formal atmosphere of a residential setting or after-school activity.

During school activities that take place off the school site or out of school hours, a more relaxed discipline or informal dress and language code may be acceptable. However, staff remain in a position of trust and need to ensure that their behaviour cannot be interpreted as seeking to establish an inappropriate relationship or friendship.

Where out of school activities include overnight stays, careful consideration needs to be given to sleeping arrangements.

Health and Safety arrangements require members of staff to keep colleagues/employers aware of their whereabouts, especially when involved in an out of school activity.

This means that staff should:

- undertake a risk assessment
- have parental consent to the activity
- ensure that their behaviour remains professional! at all times

24. First Aid and Administration of Medication

The school has First Aid and Medical Policies, which must be adhered to at all times.

25. Intimate Care

All children have a right to safety, privacy and dignity when contact of an intimate nature is required (for example assisting with toileting in EYFS or removing wet/soiled clothing).

Children should be encouraged to act as independently as possible and to undertake as much of their own personal care as is practicable. When assistance is required, staff should ensure that another appropriate adult is in the vicinity and is aware of the task to be undertaken.

Additional vulnerabilities that may arise from a physical disability should be considered with regard to individual teaching and care plans for each child.

As with all arrangements for intimate care needs, agreements between the child, their parents and the organisation must be negotiated, agreed and recorded.

This means that staff should:

- make other staff aware of the task being undertaken
- explain to the child what is happening
- consult with colleagues where a variation from agreed procedure is necessary
- record the justification for any variations to
- the agreed procedure and share this information with parents.

26. Curriculum

Many areas of the curriculum can include or raise subject matter which is sexually explicit, or of an otherwise sensitive nature. Care should be taken to ensure that resource materials cannot be misinterpreted and clearly relate to the learning outcomes identified by the lesson plan. This plan should highlight particular areas of risk and sensitivity.

The curriculum can sometimes include or lead to unplanned discussion about subject matter of a sexually explicit or otherwise sensitive nature.

Responding to students' questions can require careful judgement and staff may wish to take guidance in these circumstances from a senior member of staff.

Care should also be taken to abide by the policy on Relationships and Sex Education and the wishes of parents. Parents have the right to withdraw their children from all or part of any sex education provided (but not from the biological aspects of human growth and reproduction under the science curriculum).

This means that staff should not:

- enter into or encourage inappropriate or offensive discussion about sexual activity.

27. Photography, Videos and other Creative Arts

Many school activities involve recording images. These may be undertaken as part of the curriculum, out of school activities, for publicity, or to celebrate achievement.

Staff need to be aware of the potential for these aspects of teaching to be misused for pornographic or grooming purposes. Careful consideration should be given as to how these activities are organised and undertaken.

Using images of children for the school's publicity purposes has already had the consent of parents through the Consent Form given on admission. Images should not be displayed on other websites, in publications or in a public place without additional consent.

These directives must be followed by all staff, in keeping with the Images Policy.

28. Internet Use

Under no circumstances should adults in the school access inappropriate images. Accessing child pornography or indecent images of children on the internet, and making, storing or disseminating such material, is illegal and, if proven, will invariably lead to the individual being barred from work with children and young people.

Using school equipment to access inappropriate or indecent material, including adult pornography, would lead to disciplinary action, particularly if as a result students might be exposed to inappropriate or indecent material.

This means that staff should:

- be clear about the purpose of the activity and about what will happen to the photographs when the lesson/activity is concluded
- ensure that a senior member of staff is aware that the photography/image equipment is being used and for what purpose.
- ensure that all images are available for scrutiny in order to screen for acceptability
- be able to justify images of children in their possession.
- avoid making images in one-to-one situations.

This means that staff should not:

- have images of students stored on personal cameras, devices or home computers.
- make images of students available on the internet, other than through the school network/website with permission from parents and senior staff.

29. Whistleblowing

Whistleblowing is the mechanism by which staff can voice their concerns, made in good faith, without fear of repercussion. Please refer to the school's Whistleblowing Policy on the staff shared area.

Staff should acknowledge their individual responsibilities to bring matters of concern to the attention of senior leadership and/or relevant external agencies. This is particularly important where the welfare of children may be at risk. There is a separate Whistleblowing Policy to refer to in instances of Whistleblowing.

This means that staff should:

- report any behaviour by colleagues that raises concern.

30. Sharing Concerns and Recording Incidents

All staff should be aware of the school's Safeguarding procedures, including procedures for dealing with allegations against staff (see separate policy 'Managing Allegations'). Staff who are the subject of allegations are advised to contact their professional association.

In the event of an incident occurring, which may result in an action being misinterpreted and/or an allegation being made against a member of staff, the relevant information should be clearly and promptly recorded and reported to senior staff. Early discussion with a parent could avoid any misunderstanding.

Members of staff should feel able to discuss with their line manager any difficulties or problems that may affect their relationship with students so that appropriate support can be provided or action can be taken.

This means that staff:

- should be familiar with Bowbrook House School Safeguarding procedures
- should take responsibility for recording any incident and passing on that information where they have concerns about any matter pertaining to the welfare of an individual in the school or workplace.
– see Safeguarding Policy for further information

31. Low Level Concerns Policy

At Bowbrook we are committed to promoting an open and transparent culture in which all concerns about all adults working in or on behalf of the school (including supply teachers, volunteers and contractors) are dealt with promptly and appropriately.

Raising concerns about adults is a shared responsibility amongst staff at Bowbrook and it should be shared with the right person, recorded and dealt with appropriately. This will enable us to identify inappropriate, problematic or concerning behaviour early and therefore minimise the risk of abuse, and ensure that adults working in or on behalf of our school are clear about professional boundaries and act within these boundaries, and in accordance with our ethos and values.

There is a separate Low Level Concerns policy available to staff to refer to in an instance where a concern needs to be reported or self-report is necessary.

32. Staff Discussion and Interaction

As a small school we constantly talk about students. It is one of our strengths and it benefits the students. Staff should always speak to and about students in a professional and objective way.

Staff should always be professional towards one another in language, tone and body language. We are a supportive and inclusive staff and have a duty to behave in a professional manner towards one another.

Schools, and all work places for that matter, can cause frustration at times. Speaking to colleagues about frustrations discreetly is likely and often necessary. However, if a member of staff has a serious concern, is frustrated by a system, process or person, then this can and should be raised professionally for discussion with the most appropriate member of staff such as a line manager or member of SLT to ensure a transparent culture and the ability to discuss and address the concern.

33. Mobile Phones and Smart Technology

All staff should consistently enforce the school's policy on the use of mobile phones. Staff should not use their own mobile phone for personal reasons in front of pupils throughout the school day. This will empower staff to better challenge pupils to meet the school expectations and effectively enforce the prohibition of mobile phones throughout the school day. There may be occasions where it is appropriate for a teacher to use a mobile phone or similar device, for instance to issue homework, issue rewards and sanctions or use multi-factor authentication.

AI Smart glasses are not permitted on the school premises by any staff, parents, pupils or visitors.

34. Smoking and Vaping

Staff must not smoke/vape in or on the premises.
